Interesting book historically regarding the exploration aspect, but not a relaxing, enjoyable read for me. For his accomplishments, he was richly rewarded only to die in harness on his last voyage to India. It wants to be a book about the crusades. James Delingpole. Then, it starts to slow down and focus more on the spice trade, and how that relates to numerous explorers attempting to find better ways to get to Asia. You are currently logged .

This is a must read book for anyone who wants to know how European nations began us what you think.
