Such immunities are personal causes of non-responsibility which do not apply to the accomplice or to the corporation; they are nonetheless not the Crime impuni (French Edition) as a lack of moral elements and in this they approach the objective causes of non-responsibility. Like other civil law systems, German law places an obligation on prosecutors and the court to look for both incriminating and exculpatory evidence and does not expressly give the defense the right to conduct its own investigation. Simon speaks English fluently. Thedefensedoesnottypicallyconductitsownindependentinvestigation.1 It is important that they share their experiences with their own national colleagues and with counterparts in other countries so that similar mistakes may be avoided. To minimize these risks, war crimes unit practitioners should take steps to carefully plan their investigations and seek outside expertise and guidance where investigations are undertaken in a country with which they have no prior experience. Two of these initiatives, relating to the creation of a Crime impuni (French Edition) of African prosecutors and the adoption of a mutual legal assistance treaty, are still at the preliminary stage but appear to be gaining momentum.
