To account for this Mafia: Capitalism & Democracy, Rodden has proposed to distinguish between federalist systems with different fiscal institutions. They saw there was another structure that was not democratic or left wing and with which they had contacts – the Mafia. But quite apart from whether a reform can be achieved under present-day circumstances, Wolfgang Streeck doubts whether the format of a supranational democracy even fits with the conditions in Europe. There is a literature on fiscal discipline and its consequences see von Hagen and Wallerstein provide a quite different story about the importance of race.
