All that time, the assumption had been made that because the patient spoke English, he could read and write in English as. The patient had been referred to Residential after his most recent hospital visit, and Taresa was tasked with providing education about his disease process, medications, and diet. The latter rain started falling when the Holy Ghost came in and the day of vengeance. Doubt is a killer and the man died because of unbelief. This is a great message. God never intended for any of His children to live under a curse. Thank you my friend! That is what makes praise the ultimate spiritual weapon. The name of invisible barrier is the curse of Egypt.
