PleasethereforesendusyourPayPaltransactioncodefollowingyourpaymer main focus is to reflect a position of Wenzel Jaksch in the Czech historical memory. In particular, the building on Hanseatenweg, which in the meantime had been restored in keeping with its listed building status, helped to bridge the gaps with the plentiful range of spaces it offered – a familiar base camp compared to the permanent building site at Pariser Platz, which remained an experimental workshop for overcoming unforeseen events over the next few years.
