It was clearly not drug-related, and it is impossible to see the murder as a self-defense against an obviously harmless beggar. The protagonist, Inspector Espinosa, is not your standard hard-boiled detective; unusual for a Brazilian, he is bookish, as well as being somewhat dreamy, eccentric not unusual in a Brazilian! Book3. That might explain why some of the novels in the Inspector Espinosa series tend to deliver finales that audiences find dissatisfying. Refresh and try .
