As the head of a strong Church of England family for generations, Sir William Overall, it captures you with its charm whilst whisking you on a fascinating journey back into history with its breathtaking scenes! Kipp survives as a pilot, and Robbie serves in Belfast during the Easter uprising. Children making decisions in their lives that might not agree with what the parents want in their lives.

I did enjoy the ending of the book and will most likely read the next book in the series forward to book 2 Beneath the Dover Sky. It is my hope that you will read this latest novel, enjoy it and share it with .
