The team officially went back to the Senators nickname for the season and it was 50 years before the Nationals name would be used. Baseballs were homemade, and the core, the cover, and the stitches were made with whatever materials were on hand, and it was many years before there was any kind of standard ball. Editorialreviews-1.Details if other :. Somewhere along the way, baseball went from being a recreation enjoyed by a group of club members, and, I assume observed by family and friends, to an exhibition that drew crowds of onlookers.
