Episode III establishes Palpatine has pretty much been working on turning Anakin into a Sith Lord. But when the wary Corellians launch a counterstrike, the Alliance's show of force "and a secret mission to disable Corellia's crucial Centerpoint Station" give way to an armed skirmish. That's really my greatest concern about this whole mess - what exactly are they saying by bringing Jacen over? The main plotline in my opinion follows Jacen and Ben in their quest to learn about the Force. Is there a moment in the book that particularly moved you?
