In this position, blood and lymph drip all over his body continuously, and it looks like a monkey sitting dejectedly in the hollow of a tree with clenched fists during the rain. A couple of banks have also instituted their own tax-deductible literary dos that betray good intentions and accountants tastes.

In telling a story, the pace, whether slow or fast, must be sustained although the slower the pace, the more likely the reader will be bored, which definitely happens every time a plot gets sluggish or stalls. The only strange, indeed unnatural, thing is a colour that would blend with every other colour in the universe. Less than seven days went by before the second wonderful occasion came to be.

WeroamedallmainbookshopsintownandthenetworkThejudgment:AThainovel reasons, I believe, had less to do with personal talent than with the lack of a proper literary environment.
