I understand that its got very little to work with to talk about this remote but fascinating corner of history, but I felt like I was reading someone's powerpoint presentation in an unventilated classroom. The ruler of Ethiopia, who claimed descent from the union of Just prior to the rise of Islam, in the sixth century AD, southern Arabia was embroiled in a holy war between Christian Ethiopians and Jewish Arabs.

TheKingdomofAxumV. The Jewish kingdom, composed of ethnic Arabs who had converted to Judaism more than a century before, had launched a bloody pogrom against Christians in the region. The ruler of Ethiopia, who claimed descent from the union of Solomon and the Queen of Sheba and even was rumored to possess an object no less venerable than the Ark of the Covenant, aspired both to protect the persecuted Christians and to restore Ethiopian control in the Arabian Peninsula. However, many of its ruins lay in what is now Eritrea.
