Lasgrandesnovelasdeaventuras. This book is intended for general readers, especially those interested in detective fiction, students of 19th century literature, the history of popular fiction, detective fiction, women's writing, and feminist criticism of the novel, at undergraduate and postgraduate level. The business was rescued by the intervention of a single Delegate, William Blackstone. He worked to establish "the largest possible list in the shortest possible time", [76] adding titles at the rate of over a year; eight years later there were titles in the catalogue.
